

The Wayfinder Programme™

The 8 point modular programme designed specifically for professional women that will maximise your potential. Can be taken as individual modules or combinations, in exclusive groups or on a specialised 1:1 basis.

Module 1: Finding the inner winner

Knowing your key unconscious values is critical to success in any field of business. This starter module unwraps what is important to you and identifies any traps that could hinder unlimited success.

Module 2: How to get what you really want and save time on the way

Our 2nd module gives you comprehensive tools and techniques to identify the right outcomes for you and your business and design the necessary steps to achieve them saving time and energy.

Module 3: 5 easy steps to build better relationships and increase income

You know it's all about getting and keeping loyal customers and staff. Module 3 deals with the unconscious language of relationships giving you insider tips to improve sales and retention rates.

Module 4: How to make money and be OK with it

You're getting better but are you really comfortable about making lots of money? Module 4 will smash any misgivings and negative thinking so you feel OK about making money in and for your business.

Module 5: Motivating yourself and others to increase sales and profit

Can you and your employees cope with unlimited enthusiasm? You'll have fun finding out as you identify your motivational triggers and learn the techniques for motivating others.

Module 6: How to hitch your ride to success and banish self doubt

Module 6 delves deep to unpick your unconscious blocks to success. You'll smooth out the peaks and troughs that have held you back and become increasingly self confident in all that you do.

Module 7: How to eliminate stress and generate energy even when you have 1001 other things to do

We spend module 7 learning the tools used to regulate energy drive enabling you to cope with demands, reduce your stress levels and maximise performance.

Module 8: The essential keys to making successful presentations and winning business

A practical approach through module 8 to getting the right message out to the right people in the right way so they will buy into you and your business.
